THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1906.

Next Tuesday is Buckingham Court.

The people of Virginia are to be congratulated that Ex-Governor Cameron is to return to editorial work. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot has been fortunate enough to secure his services, and will have its associate editor-in-chief the most brilliant writer in the State, if not in the entire South. The fact is he has no superior newspaper writer in the country.

"Muddle" results from the work of our legislators, and "awkwardly framed bills" are constantly bobbing up. May be we will have to send the "boys" back to patch up their job. Too much politics, and too many agents of corporations with check books in their pockets. Isn't this the first time in the history of the State when a legislature had to investigate its own minions? Graft! Graft! Graft!

"Only in obscurity has he been omnipotent in affairs." That is said of the new French Prime Minister and when we read it we were reminded of the success of Senator Martin, who leaped from obscurity into the full blaze of public notoriety. Some men have greatness "thrust upon them."

A writer in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post made sport of the religion of our fathers, but concluded his article with these words: "It is a fact, however, that the domestic life which grew out of this faith was singularly pure." And what does a "singularly pure domestic life" mean? A nation whose God is their Lord.

Of Mr. Byrd's motives we have nothing to do, but that he did his duty courageously and well as a member of that investigating committee we are perfectly satisfied. Motives are hidden things and finite eyes can not discern them even with the aid of a microscope. There is but one searcher of the secrets of the hearts of men. The God who made man understandeth his thoughts even afar off, but man approaching the vestibule of the soul of brother man, must stand in wonder and realize that it has been written, "thus far but no father."

Buckingham Aims House.

At the March meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Buckingham county, two of the members were appointed to view a portion of the aims house tract of land, for the purpose of considering the proposal of selling it. The Board of Supervisors is considered and expected to be the faithful, true, earnest guardians of every interest of the people electing them. In consideration of the trust imposed it should look wisely and carefully before they dispose of county property. Is there any necessity for selling it, if so why not sell all of it? Would not selling a part of the tract lessen the value of it to a greater extent than the few hundred gained, the small amount being a mere cipher to the county in dollars?

The Supervisors are the custodians of the county money and they should look carefully and discreetly into all expense accounts and if the money of the people is not properly and judiciously applied in every respect, they are responsible for disbursements of the funds under their control. If such be their duty, and the affairs of the county are not managed in a wise and considerate way, they are at fault, and not the people they employ, and if the employees are not efficient and capable of discharging the work imposed upon them, act on a business principle as their guide, get rid of them at once, "try and try again" until good, faithful, honest and capable men to perform the duties can be had; such administration would gain favor of the people and reflect upon the intelligence, wisdom and good government of the stewards of the people to whom they have trusted their county affairs.

Attention Confederates.

The next regular annual meeting of Appomattox Camp Confederate Veterans, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, will be held at the Court House, at West Appomattox Va. on Saturday at two o'clock p. m. April 14th 1906. All members of the camp are earnestly requested to be present. By order of Commander T. J. Stratton, J. P. L. Man Actg. Adgt.

Marriage at Glenmore.

Mr. W. A. Jones announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Lula Jackson Jones to M. Luther Thornhill Agee, to take place Wednesday, April 25th at 3:30 o'clock, in Glenmore Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. W. P. Province will officiate. Miss Jones is a very attractive young lady of Glenmore, and Mr. Agee is a popular young business man of Scottsville, Va.

Buckingham Soldiers' Monument.

The Legislature having authorized the Board of Supervisors to give a site, and to aid, out of county funds, the efforts of our people to honor the memory of the Buckingham men, who from 1861 to 1865 freely gave their all" to duty and the State. Now let the world see that Buckingham is not ungrateful, nor capable of consigning to oblivion,—those who died for her. Let there be a grand assemblage of the men and the women and the boys and girls of Buckingham county at the Courthouse on Easter Monday the 16th day of April. Let them come with their dollars, dimes and pennies, that this oblation to patriotism and valor may be complete, and the monument be secured. Ladies and gentlemen of the committees bestir yourselves for the cause.

Fraternally,
ROBERT T. HUBARD
Comr. Irving Camp C. V. A.

Enoville.

The Enoville School closed on March 22nd. After the regular lessons of the day were over many were the games enjoyed by the pupils. Several visitors were present. Mr. Ripley entertained the school nicely with his graphaphone. We were glad that Miss Hannah Martin, one of the teachers, was well enough to attend the close of the school. She had been unable to teach for several days, owing to sickness. Several prizes were awarded the students for school work. The prize winners were Miss Lillian Coleman, of Senior grade Miss Maggie Dunnavant of Intermediate grade. Several other pupils were close in the prize contest, viz: Misses Connie Coleman, Florence Waller, Ethel Dunnavant and Louise Word.

THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1906

Farris W. Martin wife and baby guests at Mr. T. H. Martin's.

Mr. J. H. Lewis, of Buckingham was a visitor in our village Monday

Mr. S. R. Martin of the Trinity community was in the village yesterday.

The Airy Hill School Farmers' Club will meet on next Saturday night.

Lost—A photograph pin belonging to Mrs. N. H. Gregory between my home and the courthouse. The finder will please return same to Miss Minnie Shearer has ended a private session at Mr. T. H. Martin's. The people who know of the young lady are loud in their praises of her accomplishments.

Mr. Jno. C. Martin, who has been shut in doors for some months with a broken foot, was the guest of his cousin Fitzhugh Martin near here a week.

Supervisor Robertson is looking after the finishing touch of the painters, which is being applied to the clerks office. That's proper our public buildings should be kept in perfect repair.

Mrs. Orilla Stanley died at her home in Buckingham, near Togo on Thursday. She was 78 years of age and leaves two children, T. M. Stanley and Mrs. T. H. Bryant. She was a good, christian woman.

Miss Lelia B. Inge will have her millinery opening here Friday and Saturday April 6th and 7th. For spring hats and bonnets the display will be very attractive one, both to taste the milliner and the town.

Mr. E. A. Coleman was in an exciting on the Tide-water R. R. Saturday, which may cause his death. It is understood that he will recover but there is no hope of saving his eyes. His physicians say he will be totally blind. He is now in a Lynchburg hospital where several of his children have visited him since the accident. Mr. Coleman has only been at work a short while, and it is said that he had loaded a hole that was "tamping" it when thirteen lbs of dynamite, the charge in the hole exploded.

Mr. Ollie Mann, aged 32 years died at his home in Lynchburg Tuesday and his remains were brought here for interment at the home of his father Mr. William Mann, Friday. The deceased was a splendid young man and enjoyed the esteem and confidence of all who knew him. He was one of the valued employees of the Craddock Terry Co., and the devotion of his fellow workmen was in many instances brought out. His handsome flowers, and company of them accompanied the remains here. He leaves a widow and two small children, who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Thursday morning about 2 o'clock an awful storm of fire was rung over the home of Mr. John S. Blunkett, who resides near the village. Mrs. Blunkett heard the noise and aroused her husband, but it was too late to save anything. The entire building and contents were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown; it caught on the second floor where there had been no fire for two weeks. Insurance only $1,000. This is a severe blow to Mr. Blunkett. It is understood that he will rebuild.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you have a cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with sore throat, a cough, a cold, bronchitis.

What's up for Easter boys?

Mr. R. C. Mann left for Richmond Tuesday to purchase horses for his livery stable.

Mrs. W. A. Davis, of Charlotte, mother of Mrs. Matthewson, is visiting in the village.

Mr. Walker Woolridge of Bedford was the guest of his brother Mr. Archer Woolridge Sunday.

The ladies of Memorial church will have an entertainment Easter. Further notice will appear.

THE TIMES may be congratulated on a very young editor. It will be some time before he will be able to assume charge.

Mr. O. W. Hancock has broken ground for a very handsome residence here. It will be an ornament to the town.

Mr. J. D. McCormack and Mrs. S. A. Davis of Karl, were married by Rev. Mr. Murphy at the clerk's office yesterday.

Lacey Rutledge has accepted a position with Messrs. Purdum & Caldwell, and will be glad to have his friends call to see him.

Mr. J. S. Plunkett desires to thank the kind people of this county for kindness extended his family in their trouble over the recent fire which destroyed all of his personal belongings and house.

Leftwich, LeGrand & Watts, Clothiers, Lynchburg, Va., have the most attractive and best fitting display of clothes we have seen. Mr. M. E. Fore, a well known clothing man of this section has accepted a position with the house.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced or live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life."

Immunity by confession is less trouble, and lots more certain than acquittal by jury.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a variety and useless list of remedies have been suggested. To say it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with remarkable success in treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and limited use will suffice to have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such a quick relief and costs but a trifle? J. R. Atwood, Appomattox, R. J. Carter, Prospect, E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Rhenmatic Pains Quickly Relieved.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieves by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is done worth many times its cost.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, nd. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recomend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heels the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes.
